This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

in the family of her son Benjamin[6], wanting but twenty-three days of being 106 years of age.

The descendants of Paul Wentworth, whose name in the first edition was given among the "Wentworths whose origin is unknown," claim that this Paul[5] had a prior wife, Patience Abbot, and that they separated by mutual consent, she afterwards becoming the wife of his cousin Nathaniel[5] (525), whom see. This would make the unknown Paul of the first edition Paul[6] (1464*a*), and we insert him, by request of his descendants, at this place. It will be seen that this Paul unknown was born before the marriage of Paul[5] (518) to Hannah Smith, or of Patience Abbot to Nathaniel[5] (525), and that neither afterwards had a son Paul, which gives probability to this claim of his origin. Paul[5] had:

1464*a*. Paul[6], said to have been born in Kittery, Me., of which Berwick once constituted a part. From his age given at his death, he was born in 1758. He married Mary Coffin, 4 February 1782, at the house of Deacon Benjamin Knight, of Berwick, Me. (Deacon Knight had a brother John Knight, who married her sister Sarah Coffin, 9 October 1773. Berwick records mention a Jonathan Knight, of Berwick, Me., as "published" to Abiah Coffin, of Conway, N. H., 21 May 1788. Benjamin Knight was a descendant of Grindall Knight, one of the first settlers of Berwick.) There was a Paul Wentworth, jr., "published" at Berwick, 7 February 1778, to Lydia Coffin. Under the record of the publishment

* The family tradition respecting this action is as follows: Each sentry, for many nights in succession, had been killed. Richard[5] volunteered one night to take the place of a comrade detailed for that duty, who was much affected in the belief that he should share the fate of his predecessors. Richard placed his clothes upon a post, and hid himself in bushes where he could see who fired. Eventually he saw a bush moving slowly, and watching carefully, thought he saw an enemy behind it. Waiting till he was satisfied of the fact, he fired. The shot was fatal, and it was found to have slain a noted Indian chief.

* SHAPLEIGH. — This is an unusual but ancient name in Devonshire and Cornwall, England. Alexander[1] Shapleigh, born in Devonshire in 1585, was the ancestor of all in New England now bearing that name. He was a merchant ship-owner, and interested in the primitive plantations and trading establishments in Maine and New Hampshire, where he found a market for his goods sent over in his own ships. He came over as agent of Sir Ferdinando Gorges. The exact date of his coming is unknown, but he was here as early as 1642, as appears by a deed executed by him in that year. He lived in Kittery, Me., where his male lineal descendants still occupy lands once in his possession. He had:

1. Catherine[2] Shapleigh, married, 1st, James Treworgie, born in England about 1614. He came to this country about 1635 as supercargo of one of his father-in-law's vessels, and died in Newfoundland prior to July 1650. She married, 2d, as his second wife, Edward Hilton, the Dover settler in 1623, Magistrate there 1641, afterwards of Exeter, N. H. She had, by her first husband:

1. John[3] Treworgie.

Paul[5] married, 21 June 1769, Molly, daughter of Tilly Higgins,*

* Higgins. — Tilly Higgins was an importer and trader in South Berwick, Me., in 1744. He planted some of those now beautiful elms in South Berwick; particularly those in front of the house which he built (next to the Congregational church), which place is still owned by his descendants. He married Mary, daughter of John and Mary Woodsum. He made his Will 16 July 1777, which was of Berwick, Me. She was born 23 March 1750, and died 15 January 1777. He died 9 February 1781, at 3 o'clock, P. M. They had:

1554. Joanna[6], born 10 November 1770; married Capt. Hiram[6] (1594) Rollins. [3572]

1555. Molly[6], born 28 March 1772, died aged six months.

1556. Tilly[6], born 26 July 1773; was a sea-captain; married Elizabeth[6] (1600) Rollins, daughter of John[5] Rollins, and granddaughter of Judge Ichabod Rollins (who married Abigail[4] (162), sister to Col. John[4] Wentworth. See "Rollins" note under Abigail[4]). Tilly[6] died childless, 12 November 1801, at South Berwick, Me.; his widow married, 2d, Benjamin Pike; 3d, Christopher Howe, survived him, and died in Saco, Me., in 1856.

1557. Michael[6], born 31 May 1775, died 30 August 1777.

JOHN[5]* (531) (known as "John Wentworth, jr."), son of "Col. John[4]" and Joanna (Gilman) Wentworth, born 17 July 1745, at Salmon Falls, N. H., in the house built by his great-uncle, Col. Paul[3] (32), and graduated at Harvard College in 1768.

John[5] Wentworth, jr., studied law with Judge William Parker,† of Portsmouth, N. H., and first saw his wife as she accompanied her mother into Court in that town.

In 1767–8 there was but one attorney-at-law in the limits of old Strafford County, viz., John Sullivan, of Durham, afterwards a Major-General in the Revolution; but John Wentworth, jr., was in the practice of the law before the organization of the county in 1773. These two were then and for many years after, the only attorneys in the county. In 1787 he was one of the only twenty-nine lawyers in all New Hampshire.

He lived and died in Dover, in a house still standing (though greatly altered), known as "the Durell house,"‡ being the building proved 16 September 1777, giving property to wife Mary; to sons John Higgins, Daniel Higgins, Edmund Higgins; to Sarah Hollon, Elizabeth Higgins; to grandsons Tilly[6] (1556) and Michael[6] (1557) and granddaughter Joanna[6] (1554), children of daughter Mary Wentworth, deceased.

* He was grandfather of the author of this work.

† William Parker was born in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1703. He was attorney at law, Register of Probate from 1736 to his death, Representative from Portsmouth, and one of the Justices of the Superior Court from 1771 to 1776. He died 29 April 1791.

on the west side of Central Street, next south of the present Belknap Church. It was built by Dr. Samuel Wigglesworth, who also (with James Calef) built the house next south, long the residence of Hon. William King Atkinson, and later of Hon. Asa Freeman. Samuel and John Wigglesworth conveyed the property to John[5] (531) Wentworth, 4 November 1771, for £400, describing it as "a quarter of an acre or thereabouts, with the dwelling-house, barn, store, etc., upon it, bounded north by land of heirs of Tristram Coffin, south by land of James Calef, east by the road, and west by land of Samuel Hodge." The lower story of the building next the dwelling-house, on the same lot, Mr. Wentworth occupied as his law-office.

On the 10th of January 1774, at a legal meeting of Dover, he was appointed one of the Committee of Correspondence for Dover, in the beginning of the Revolutionary troubles, Col. Otis Baker being chairman. In 1777 he was chosen Moderator of the Dover town meeting, and was re-elected nearly every year until 1786 (inclusive), presiding over the last meeting before his death.

On the 19th of December 1776, he took his seat as Representative of Dover in the Assembly, which met at Exeter, N. H., and was re-elected annually until 1781, when he was transferred to the Council, to succeed his father, whose term expired 19 December 1780, and who died 17 May 1781. He served in the Council until 19 December 1783; was chosen for another year, but at the first organization of a Senate for the State at its session, 2 June 1784, he took his seat as a member, and served until 7 June 1786. At this time his protracted ill-health compelled him to decline all further public life, and he lived only until the following January. His travel to Exeter, where the Legislature held its sessions, was reckoned in the mileage account at eighteen miles. At the organization of the Probate Court for Strafford County,* he was appointed Register of Probate, and held that office until his death.

He attended all the sessions of the Legislature to which he was elected except those of 20 May 1778 and 12 August 1778, when he was attending the session of the Continental Congress. Among references to him on the records are the following: —

January 1, 1777, Voted, That a Committee to draw up and bring in a Bill for the Trial and Punishment of Persons who shall by any misbehaviour in word or deed be adjudged Enemical to the Liberty & Freedom of the States of America (not within the Act against Treason) and directing how such Trials shall be had, and how judgments thereon shall be executed; and that John Wentworth jun. Esq., Jonathan Mitchell, Esq., Samuel Sewall, Esq., Samuel Gilman, jun., & Col° [Nathaniel] Peabody, be the Committee for that purpose.

March 1778, he was on a committee, with Jonathan Blanchard and Col. Samuel Hobart, to "form and lay a bill before the Assembly" for raising £80,000,—£60,000 for the Continental treasury and £20,000 for the State treasury.

March 5, 1778 he was on a committee, with Mr. Samuel Cutts and Mr. Jonathan Blanchard, to prepare and bring in a bill to Discriminate and point out what Estates of persons who are gone over to the Enemy, or have aided them, &c., shall be confiscated and sold for the benefit of the State.

November 12, 1779. Paid to John Wentworth, jr., Esq., for service in Congress, £21, 17s., 1d.

In November 1780, Attorney-General Samuel Livermore being absent, John Wentworth, jr., was appointed, with Jonathan Blanchard and Nathaniel Peabody, a "committee to prosecute State prisoners."

While a member of the Council, he was appointed on its behalf, 1 January 1782, with three members of the House, to draft all and such bills as are necessary to be passed this session, and lay the same before this house.

February 26, 1783, he was one of a committee to draft a resolve recommending to the several Towns and places in this State, the continuance of the present form of Government till the 10th of June, 1784, unless a permanent plan of Government shall take place sooner.

June 18, 1783, he was one of a committee to draft An Address to the Inhabitants of this State requesting an alteration in several Articles of the Confederation of the United States as recommended by Congress, and such other matters as they judge necessary.

While a member of the Assembly he was also appointed one of the Committee of Safetey for the State, as by the following, adopted on report of a committee:—

June 13, 1777.—Voted, That the Committee of Safety do consist of thirteen members, viz: The Hon^bl Meshech Weare, Josiah Bartlett, Nicholas Gilman, Ebenezer Thompson, John Dudley, George Gains, Josiah

Moulton, John Wentworth, Jun., Nathaniel Peabody, John McClary, Thomas Odiorne, Jonathan Lovewell, & Benjamin Giles, Esq^{rs}. — & that they continue in office until another Committee of Safety be appointed.

On the next day the records give the following: —

Resolve Impowering the Committee of Safety of this State to cause to be apprehended and convened before them and committ such persons as they shall find Enemical to the American States &c., was read a third time and passed.

This Committee of Safety, during the recess of the Legislature performed all the duties of the Government, legislative, executive, and judicial.

It was also while a member of the Assembly that he was appointed a Delegate of New Hampshire in the Continental Congress.

On the 10th of March, 1778, a committee nominated six persons from whom to choose two delegates;

Whereupon the House proceeded to the choice of two of the said persons for Delegates to represent this State in the Continental Congress, for the current year, and the ballots being taken & counted, it appeared that the Honble William Whipple, and John Wentworth, Jr., Esqr, were chosen to that purpose.

March 14, 1778, Voted, That the Honble Josiah Bartlett and John Wentworth, jun., Esq., be and hereby are appointed to serve as Delegates to represent this State in the Continental Congress for and during the term of one year from the date hereof unless sooner recalled, and that they & each of them in the absence of the other, have full and ample power in behalf of the State to consent and agree to all measures which Congress shall deem necessary for the public good.

On the 18th of August 1778, he was chosen one of the delegates to serve for one year from the 1st of the following November.

In Vol. I of Farmer and Moore's Historical Collections, in a Memoir of Hon. Josiah Bartlett, it is said: —

In May 1778, Col. Bartlett again attended as a delegate at Congress, which sat at Yorktown [Pa.],* the enemy occupying Philadelphia. He went in company with Mr. John Wentworth, jr., who was so unwell that he could not long attend Congress; returned early in August. After the enemy evacuated Philadelphia, Congress adjourned to meet there again July 1st.

* Congress first met at Yorktown, 30 September 1777. At Philadelphia, Sunday, 14 September 1777, a resolution was passed providing for the removal of the records of Congress to Lancaster, Pa., in case it was found necessary to leave Philadelphia. On Thursday, 18 September 1777, the President of Congress having received a letter from Col. Alexander Hamilton, one of Gen. Washington's aids, intimating the necessity of an immediate removal, the Congress met at Lancaster, Pa., 27 September 1777, and adjourned to Yorktown, Pa.

By a letter * to his wife, it appears that Mr. Wentworth arrived at Yorktown, 28 May 1778. The records of the Continental Congress show that Hon. Josiah Bartlett, 20 May 1778, presented the credentials of Mr. Wentworth and himself for one year, unless sooner recalled; and that Mr. Wentworth took his seat on the 30th of May. June 9th he (Mr. Wentworth), Thomas Hayward, of South Carolina, Henry Marchant, of Rhode Island, and Roger Sherman, of Connecticut, were added to the Board of the treasury.

There were votes of his recorded on the 11th, 16th, 17th, and 18th of June. There was a vote taken on the afternoon of the 18th of June, on which his name does not appear; nor does it ever appear afterwards, yet on the 22d June a petition was referred to a select committee upon which he was appointed. On the 20th August 1778, an order was passed for issuing a warrant on the

* The following letter was written by Hon. John[5] (531) Wentworth, jr., when at Yorktown, to his wife:

YORKTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA, June 10, 1778.

MY DEAR, — I well know from my own feelings the anxiety you must have undergone since my leaving Dover. Whether I could have relieved you from it before the receipt of this letter, is very uncertain.

As many of the letters sent from hence to the Eastern States have hitherto miscarried, I chose to delay writing a few days, when I should have an opportunity by a gentleman going on for Boston, who engaged to forward my letter to Col. Langdon by a safe hand, in which I enclose this.

Our journey (rather too lengthy for recreation) was agreeable enough for the times. We were, however, extremely hardshipped in passing through Connecticut, being sometimes considerably puzzled to find provender for our horses or entertainment for ourselves — occasioned partly by the multiplicity of travellers — but principally from the wisdom of partial regulations, that State having come fully into the mode of restricting prices. Before that happened I imagine a traveller must have met with most excellent fare. For we could scarcely ride a mile without reaching the sign of a sign; so powerful were the operations of the act, that nothing but the posts were left standing.

On our arrival at Fishkill [N. Y.], on the 13th of May, agreeable to my determination, I went into the Hospital and got myself and waiter inoculated. From then, until my arrival at Congress, I endured much mortification by a total abstinence from animal food; which really must have happened to one who during the whole time had a pretty keen appetite.

We travelled on to Sussex Court House [N. J.], without any great inconvenience, save the inflammation in my arm, caused by the heat and the smallness of my coat-sleeve. At the place last mentioned, we met with General [Horatio] Gates and his lady; who being acquainted with my situation, and the nature of the disorder, perhaps better than the generality of those who are not of the Faculty, advised me to measures too rational not to be complied with; and from which I reaped considerable benefit.

The General, in a very polite manner, addressed a letter to Dr. [Jonathan] Potts, a physician of note at Reading Town, about fifty miles short of this place, that when I should arrive there, he might take me into his immediate care. He did so; and although I thought myself sufficiently able to have completed my journey, I was obliged, agreeable to his directions, to tarry a short space at Read-treasury for $500 for him, but his colleague alone was present to vote on all the votes on that day.

His name appears as one of the signers of the original Articles of Confederation. They were signed at Philadelphia, the 9th of July, by the mass of delegates. A few, from the dates to their names, must have signed afterwards. Mr. Wentworth dates his signature 8 August 1778.

ing Town. During which, I received the utmost kindness from the Doctor, as well as from a number of other gentlemen, refugees from Philadelphia. In short, I had everything that could possibly render my situation in the highest degree comfortable. Tho' the small-pox were at their full, I set off for, and got here with convenience on the 28th May.

I think myself now entirely rid of a disease which in New Hampshire is even thought of with horror, but here deemed a mere trifle. So much so, that it would be hardly worth while to complain, especially if taken by inoculation. For my own part I was not a little surprised at an instance in Reading Town. The gentleman's housekeeper, where I resided, and who constantly attended me, had never had it; and when I mentioned the risque she ran, she only replied that she was very indifferent about it. Upon the whole, I had the disorder very favorably, having in the whole not more than one hundred pustules.

I should have been extremely glad to have tarried a day or two at Bethlehem, in this State, a pretty little town. The whole town, containing, as I was informed, about one thousand souls, constitutes but one family. They call themselves Moravians. The whole attend morning and evening prayers in one great hall. As I lodged in town, I attended, with a number of other strangers, the latter exercise. They are very fond of music, of which they have a fine band. An organ only was made use of that evening. The upper end of the hall was filled by two or three hundred women, dressed exactly alike, and the lower with men. The gravity of the music and the decency of the worshippers were worthy the imitation of those who professed to have embraced a better religion.

The single women live all together in a spacious building of five stories. One of the chambers is so long as to contain sixty beds. They are employed in various sorts of manufactures, and are very industrious. They have but one tavern (which however is capable of entertaining one hundred travellers at a time), but one tan yard, one shoe maker's shop, and even but one cow-house; and so of every other business, all things being in common. Every matter seems to be conducted with more regularity than in the smallest family among us. They are the most obliging, inoffensive people I ever saw

I can give you no news but such as you already must have heard, viz. of the arrival of the Commissioners, a few days since, from England. We shall not have an opportunity of seeing them unless they comply with measures, which from the present conduct of their army, seems unlikely. They have come out for the purpose of settling the dispute to the mutual advantage of both parties; and their army have within a few days past, commenced another campaign, with every mark of cruelty.

The ill health of Mr. Wentworth, however, may have kept him at Yorktown, after the other delegates returned to Philadelphia.

The family tradition is that Mr. Wentworth was so unwell that he was able to attend scarcely any of the sessions of Congress, and that it was his sickness, while at Congress, that brought on the consumption of which he finally died. He was in New Hampshire 28 October 1778, as he then was at a session of the Legislature at Exeter, N. H. The traces of Mr. Wentworth at home make it apparent that he could have absent at Congress only one season, and that in 1778.

The Hon. William Whipple, under date of Portsmouth, N. H., 13 September 1778, writes as follows to Hon. Josiah Bartlett, then at Congress:

Since my last, I am informed that Mr. Wentworth has returned home in a bad state of health, and that your ill health will not permit you to tarry long after him.

From various circumstances they seem determined on the evacuation of Philadelphia. How long that step may be retarded by the arrival of the Commissioners, is altogether uncertain. As soon after the evacuation as the city can be cleansed, I presume Congress will remove thither. As soon after receiving this as convenience will permit, you will forward me a line at least, giving me an account of every matter worth communicating. It will be best that the superscription be in a man's hand. You will send it by a trusty hand to Col. [John] Langdon, whose assistance I have asked. He will enclose it in a letter to me.

It must unavoidably be both disagreeable and inconvenient for a person to leave his family and connections for any considerable time, but the consideration of their being within the reach of a kind Providence and in an obliging neighborhood, must greatly tend to give him ease on that head. For me, you need be under no particular concern, for though I am not among a people quite so benevolent as those of my own neighborhood, yet, as an individual, I have no reason to find fault, as I stand precisely on a footing with the natives of the place, — it being an established principle with each of them to care for no one but themselves.

You will no doubt wonder how I came to write so long a letter, as I am not very fond of writing. I determined when I got engaged to make but one piece of business of it. Now, this letter is long enough, in all conscience, for half a dozen; you will, therefore, do me the justice to divide it into six equal portions, so as to make one a month, which will answer for the whole time that I expect to be absent.

I wish it was possible for you to make our little folks know how much I regard them. You, however, my dear, may be assured that I am,

With all due affection, your JOHN WENTWORTH, Jr.

P. S. — You will not omit giving my proper regards to all relations as you see, and to all friends who enquire after me.

You will also inform my waiter's father at Durham that his son had the small-pox very light, and that he is now well and does his duty to acceptance.

The first class of the Lottery is drawn, but neither of the tickets in which you are concerned has drawn anything, unless perhaps a twenty dollar prize, a list of which has not yet been published.

You will direct to me, a Member of Congress, Yorktown, Pennsylvania.

On the 30th of March 1781, he was again chosen, with John Taylor Gilman,* Delegate to the Continental Congress; but it does not appear that he attended.

The New Hampshire Literary Gazette, published at Concord, N. H., in 1835, says: —

As a lawyer, Mr. Wentworth was far above mediocrity, and as a statesman and lawgiver, he was superior to most of his contemporaries in the circle in which he moved. But it was as a man that his virtues shone forth pre-eminent. His benevolence was of the purest order. He was never wearied of well doing, and at this day the aged speak of his character in terms of grateful remembrance. He made his profession an instrument of doing good to his fellow-men, and not a stalking horse, on which he might ride to fame and wealth over the necks of the poor and the ignorant. Many anecdotes are related of the good-natured address which he made use of in settling the disputes and difficulties betwen his neighbors which might be referred to him in his professional capacity, and which, had he practised the arts of the pettifogger, he might have rendered sources of litigation and profit. When an account was placed in his hands for suit, he was in the habit of inquiring into the circumstances of the debtor, and if he found him unable to pay the demand, he would bring the parties together, he would effect a peaceable compromise between them, redounding more to the honor and profit of both debtor and creditor than if rigorous measures, better calculated to exasperate than reconcile, had been pursued.

The name of this excellent young man deserves to be held by the citizens of New Hampshire in affectionate and lasting remembrance.

John Wentworth, jr., died a member of the Congregational Church, in Dover, N. H., as all his American ancestors by the name of Wentworth had been before him. His ill health, which bore consumptive tendencies ever after his sickness at the Conti-

* This John Taylor Gilman was son of Nicholas Gilman, cousin of John[5] (531) Wentworth and grandson of his mother's brother, Daniel Gilman, of Exeter, N. H. He was afterwards Governor of New Hampshire, and was brother of Nicholas Gilman, who was one of the delegates who framed the present Constitution of the United States. In February 1867, the author copied his autograph from the original parchment copy of the Constitution at Washington, in the office of the Secretary of State, at the same time that he did that of his own grandfather John[5] Wentworth, jr., from the original Articles of Confederation. The author's wife, daughter, and brother Samuel H.[7] (3597) accompanied him. This Nicholas Gilman was grandson of Daniel Gilman, brother of Hon. John[5] (531) Wentworth, jr.'s mother. See note to John[4] (160).

nental Congress, reminded him of his duty to his wife and young children, the youngest of whom (the author's father) Paul[6] (1564), was not five years old at his death, and he endeavored to confine himself to his profession during the last few years of his life; but with all his efforts, such was his confiding and liberal disposition, that what he hoped at his death might be a competence, became in the end but a little more than the fruits of his own good name and example.

Could his health and life have been spared to mature or old age, it is but fair to conclude that other and higher honors would have been bestowed upon one who, until it became evident that consumption had marked him for an early death, had been more highly honored than any man of his age in the State. Gov. John Langdon, after complimenting Mr. Wentworth one day very highly, wound up his sentence as follows: "His father's blood runs through all his veins." To those who knew Col. John[4] (160) Wentworth, as the men of those days did, no higher eulogy could have been pronounced.

John[5] Wentworth, jr., married, July 1771, Margaret Frost, of New Castle, N. H. (They were "published," as by New Castle records, 28 April 1771.) She was born 3 December 1747, in New Castle, and was daughter of Joseph and Margaret (Colton) Frost,*

* FROST. — There was a George Frost in York co., Me., 15 June 1635. He was on a jury, 1640.

Nicholas[1] Frost was a native of Tiverton, England. Dr. Usher Parsons, of Providence, R. I., one of his descendants, says he was born about 1595. John Farmer, of Concord, N. H., says about 1589. He arrived at Piscataqua about 1635 or 1636, and settled at the head of Sturgeon Creek, on the south side of Frost's Hill in Eliot, Me., where he died 20 July 1663. He was buried in the rear of his house. Of his wife, nothing is known, she not being mentioned in his Will, made in 1650. He was on the jury in York co. in 1650. His children were:

1. John[2] Frost, settled in York, and afterwards on the Isles of Shoals, where he died leaving widow Sarah and children.

2. Charles[2] Frost, born 2 July 1631; of whom see below.

3. Nicholas[2] Frost. His brother Charles[2] was made his guardian 5 March 1663. He died single, August 1673.

4. Catherine[2] Frost, eldest daughter, and married before her father died. She married William Leighton, of whose family see account in note to Benjamin[3] (33) Wentworth, son of Ezekiel[2], who married her granddaughter Elizabeth, daughter of John and Oner (Langdon) Leighton.

5. Elizabeth[2] Frost, married William Smith.

Charles[2] Frost, son of Nicholas[1] as above, as the eldest, took the homestead, containing five hundred acres of land. He was Major, and actively engaged in the Indian war, for which, and for other facts, see sketch of his life by his descendant Dr. Usher Parsons, in N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register, 1849, pp. 249–'62. He represented Kittery in the Massachusetts Legislature 1660 and 1661, and also of New Castle. She was admitted to the church in Dover, N. H., from the church in New Castle, 29 December 1771. After the death of her husband John[5], jr., she became the third wife of Col.

in 1669 and 1674. He married, at the age of forty-four, Mary, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Howell) Bowles, of Wells, Me. Mary, wife of Joseph Bowles, was daughter of Morgan Howell, who made his Will, in 1667, at Cape Porpoise or Arundel (now Kennebunk Port, Me.), where he had bought one hundred acres of land in 1648.

Major Charles[2] Frost was killed by the Indians 4 July 1697. Parsons, in his memoir, says, "On Sabbath morning, July 4, 1697, he expressed an unusually strong desire to go with his family to his wonted place of worship at Newichewannick [Berwick], a distance of five miles. His wife and two sons, Charles[3] and John[3], with some friends, accompanied him. On their return homeward, and within a mile of his dwelling, a volley of musketry was suddenly discharged at them, which brought several of them to the ground. It was the work of a party of Indians hid by the wayside under a large log, in which they had stuck a row of green boughs." Pike says that the persons killed were Major Charles[2] Frost, Dennis Downing, and Phebe Heard [wife of John Heard], and that John Heard was wounded.

In August 1853 the author of this work and his wife, after visiting the adjoining graves of his ancestors Joseph[4] and his father John[3] Frost, at New Castle, rode to Eliot, Me., to see the grave of Major Charles[2] Frost, who was killed by the Indians. It was on the "Old Berwick road," so called, about half way to South Berwick, Me., from Portsmouth, N. H. He was killed about a mile farther on towards South Berwick, at a place ever since called "The Ambush." The place has never been out of the possession of the family of Frost. Nicholas[1], the emigrant settler and father of Charles[2], lived at the garrison down in the field, across the road, nearly opposite the one-story house behind which the grave of Charles[2] is. The inscription is yet readable. The stone is a heavy one and lies flat on the ground, because as tradition says the Indians once dug up the body, and stuck it upon a pole, upon the great hill known as Frost's Hill. At our visit, the old two-story house had just been torn down and a new one-story one erected. There were several graves, but only a few stones with inscriptions:

"Here lies interred the body of Mr Charles Frost, aged 65 years deceased July 4 1697."

"Mrs. Mary Frost wife of Charles Frost Esq. deceased Saturday Novr ye 11 1704 in ye 62nd year of her age."

"Elliot Frost departed this life January 6, 1745, in the 28th year of his age."

"Capt. Nathaniel Frost died February 17, 1829, aged 75."

At the time of this visit, the house was occupied by the widow of Francis[7] Frost (son of this Nathaniel[6] who was son of Charles[5], son of Charles[4], son of Charles[3], son of Charles[2]). Her name was Sally, daughter of John Raitt who married Sally Goodwin; she was granddaughter of Alexander Raitt who married Miriam, daughter of a John Frost and widow of Elliot[4] Frost, who died as above, aged 28. This Elliot[4] Frost was son of Charles[3] Frost, jr., and grandson of Charles[2], sen., who was killed by the Indians.

Major Charles[2] Frost made his Will 7 January 1690–1, at which date the four daughters last named below were not married. He had (order not certain):

1. Charles[3] Frost, born 17 April 1678; took the homestead. He was deacon in the church, Register and Judge of Probate, and commander of regiment of militia. He married, 1st, 7 February 1698–9, Sarah, daughter of Capt. Simon Wainwright, of Haverhill, Mass., born 17 July 1682, died 5 June 1714; 2d, 25 November 1714,

John Waldron, of Dover. She died in Dover, 30 September 1805, and was buried in his private burial-ground with his other wives.* (For "Waldron," see N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register for 1851. See

Jane, daughter of Robert Elliot (one of the selectmen of New Castle, N. H. in 1695), and widow of Andrew Pepperrell (brother of Sir William). See "Pepperrell" note to William[4] (85) Wentworth. He died 14 December 1724. Widow Jane Frost made her Will 25 June 1747, proved 25 May 1749. He had, by his first wife:

1. Sarah[4] Frost, born 6 November 1699.
2. Charles[4] Frost, born 21 May 1701; married, 12 September 1723, Sarah, daughter of Andrew Pepperrell; lived in his father's house, and died there 10 April 1751. His son:
    1. Charles[5] Frost, born 17 January 1725–6; married Sarah, daughter of Nathaniel Rogers, of York, Me.; he lived in his father's house, and died there 24 January 1788. His son:
        1. Nathaniel[6] Frost, born 20 August 1754, is the one whose grave is referred to above; he married, 13 March 1785, Sarah Ferguson; he lived in his father's house, and died there 17 February 1829. His son:

Meshech W.[6] Wentworth, under date of New York, —— January, 1799, wrote his mother the following letter, and died on the voyage therein referred to:

Honored Mother: I arrived at this port on the 3 of this month, where I have the pleasure to meet my cousin Capt. Tilly[6] Wentworth [son of Paul[5] (530)], and 1563. Dorothy Frost[6], born 24 June 1779; married Hon. John Harvey, of Northwood, N. H. [3585]

1564. Paul[6], born 22 April 1782, father of the author of this work. [3588]

THOMAS MILLET[5] (535), son of Col. John[4] and Abigail (Millet) Wentworth, born 19 February 1753, went to Lebanon, Me., when quite young, to superintend a farm for his father; remained there and finally died there. He was a member of the Massachusetts Legislature in 1788, which ratified by that State the Constitution of the United States. The vote stood 187 ayes to 168 nays; Mr. Wentworth voted in the negative. He represented Lebanon in the Massachusetts Legislature (while Maine was a district) seventeen years. He was one of the wealthiest men in the county. He married, 26 January 1789, Rebecca, daughter of Rev. Isaac Hasey, born 11 October 1767. Mr. Hasey was the first settled minister of Lebanon, Me., being ordained 22 June 1765; was born in Cambridge, Mass., graduated at Harvard College, 1762, and married Rebecca Owen, who was born in Boston, Mass., in 1733; he died October 1812. Mrs. Wentworth died 8 September 1859. Thomas M.[5] died 3 November 1841.

The author visited Mr. Wentworth and wife in 1839, and Mrs. Wentworth again in 1851 and 1855. She was then living with her son, in good health and in uncommon activity for one of her age.

Capt. [John] Riley [of Dover, N. H.], who informs me that you were all in a good state of health when he left home. I have not wrote you this long time, but more on the account of neglect than the want of an opportunity. I understand by my cousin that you have heard of my being taken. The voyage before this last to the West Indies, I lost part of what I had and vessel condemned. I came home to Baltimore passenger; from thence I returned to Alexandria. Capt. R. tells me of my brother Joseph's dying in the West Indies, but in what part he could not inform me. I am very sorry to hear it, and hope the news is not true. I shall now take a voyage with Capt. [Tilly[6]] Wentworth to Jamaica and back again to this place. But if the voyage shall be altered, I shall write you again before I go. I have been very healthy, ever since I left home, and hope that this will find you all in the same state. For my part I have stood in more need of a butcher than a doctor since I left home. I hope this letter will answer for my absence. Capt. R[iley] will give you further particulars of me. My love to my brothers and sisters, and do not forget me to my uncle and aunt Jewett [his mother's sister, Dorothy Frost, married James Jewett], and the rest of my relations at Portsmouth and New Castle. Nothing more at present,

But your affectionate Son,

MESHECH W. WENTWORTH.

* Capt. Samuel Wallingford, son of Col. Thomas and Elizabeth (Swett) Wallingford, was Lieutenant in Capt. Moses Yeaton's company, in 1775, and Captain in Col. Stephen Evans' regiment, 17 December 1776. He also served with distinction as Lieutenant of the Marines under the celebrated John Paul Jones. He aided in the capture of the British brig George; and was killed in an engagement between the Drake and Ranger, 24 April 1778. This engagement was one of the most daring actions of that renowned naval commander. It took place off Belfast, Ireland. Jones had been cruising on that coast, and by his many bold enterprises had struck terror into the minds of the people of that neighborhood. To stop his marauding, the sloop-of-war Drake, of twenty guns, was prepared for sea, on board of which a large number of volunteers entered as for a holiday expedition, making her crew one hundred and sixty men, so determined were they to get rid of the pest. On the morning of April 24, Jones' ship, the Ranger, of eighteen guns, was off the harbor, and the Drake immediately proceeded to get under way, and came slowly out to sea. The Ranger ran down toward her, and hauling up her courses, lay to, awaiting her arrival. On her coming up, Jones sheered across her bow, and poured into her the first broadside. The engagement was maintained with great energy and obstinacy at close quarters for more than an hour, when the Captain of the Drake receiving a musket-ball in his head, his crew called for quarter, and the action ceased. The Captain and Lieutenant of the Drake died of their wounds, and forty-two of her crew were killed. The loss on board the Ranger was the brave and noble Lieutenant Wallingford, and one seaman killed and six wounded. The prize was taken to Brest, with two hundred prisoners, being double the number of his own crew, and Jones was greeted with lively demonstrations of joy by the American commissioners, in which the French Court heartily joined.

One incident honorable to the humanity of Lieut. Wallingford we cannot forbear to mention. Jones, just previous to the above-named battle, had entered Whitehaven harbor in the night, with the intention of destroying the town and a large fleet of vessels lying there. He assigned to Wallingford the duty of firing a portion of the fleet, while he scaled the forts and spiked the guns. Having entirely accomplished this object, Jones was surprised not to see the shipping on fire. Meeting Wallingford on the pier, he inquired as to the failure of his part of the plan. Wallingford replied that his light had gone out, and besides, he did not see that anything could be gained by burning poor people's property.

ment with the Drake off the British coast, 24 April 1778. She was married, 2d, 20 November 1785 (by Rev. Jeremy Belknap, the historian of New Hampshire; see "Belknap" note following "Cogswell" note herewith), to Col. Amos Cogswell,* of Dover, N. H.,

* COGSWELL. — Col. Amos Cogswell was a descendant of John[1] Cogswell, the emigrant. "Johannes Cogswell, filius Johannes Cogswell, baptizatus fuit, 25 July 1622," at Wesbury, co. Wilts, England.

John[1] Cogswell, a merchant of London, England, embarked from Bristol 4 June 1635, and lastly from Milford Haven, Wales, in the "Angel Gabriel," which reached Pemaquid, but was driven from her anchorage there by the "Great Hurricane" of 15 August 1635, and totally wrecked. He brought with him his sons William[2] Cogswell, aged 14, John[2] Cogswell, aged 12, and Edward[2] Cogswell, aged 6, the ages being given in 1635. It is not known where or when his daughters Mary[2] Cogswell, Hannah[2] Cogswell, Abigail[2] Cogswell, and Sarah[2] Cogswell were born. John[1] Cogswell was admitted freeman 3 March 1636, and died 29 November 1669. His inventory was taken in 1670. He had wife Elizabeth, who died 2 June 1676. Their children:

1. William[2] Cogswell, born about 1619, of whom see below.
2. John[2] Cogswell, of Ipswich, bound for England, in 1653 (in which year he died at sea), made Will, and besides his brother William[2] Cogswell, and two others whose names are torn off the paper (in Salem, Mass., examined in August 1859), mentions:
   1. Samuel[3] Cogswell, (was he the Samuel whom Savage says was of Saybrook, and married, 22 October 1668, Susan Hearn, and had eight children?) and
   2. Elizabeth[3] Cogswell.
3. Edward[2] Cogswell, born about 1629, probably of Ipswich, and died about 1700.
4. Mary[2] Cogswell.
5. Hannah[2] Cogswell.
6. Abigail[2] Cogswell.
7. Sarah[2] Cogswell, born about 1647; married Simon Tuttle.

William[2] Cogswell, son of John[1], as above, born about 1619; was of Ipswich in 1646; had wife Elizabeth, and died there about 1701, willing property to sons William[3] Cogswell, John[3] Cogswell, Jonathan[3] Cogswell, Adam[3] Cogswell, daughter Hester[3] Cogswell, and her three sisters. (Savage gives this list to Edward[2] Cogswell, but he mentions Jonathan[3] Cogswell and John[3] Cogswell, as children of William[2] Cogswell; and records in Salem give William[3] Cogswell, son of William[2] Cogswell, born 4 December 1659.) A Jonathan Cogswell married, in Hamilton, Mass., 23 October 1717, Hannah Wiggins. William[2] Cogswell certainly had (doubtless with others):

2. Jonathan[3] Cogswell, married, 14 May 1686, Elizabeth, daughter of Francis Wainwright.
3. William[3] Cogswell, born (by Salem records) 4 December 1659. (Was he the William Cogswell who married, at Ipswich, 9 October 1685, Martha Emerson?)
4. Edmund[3] Cogswell, died (by Salem records) 14 May 1680.

John[3] Cogswell, son of William[2] as above, had wife Hannah, and eleven children; he died in Ipswich, in 1710. (A John Cogswell married, as by Salem records, 22 July 1674, Mrs. Margaret Gifford.) Of the eleven children was:

Nathaniel[4] Cogswell, born in Haverhill, Mass., 19 January 1707, and was afterwards a merchant there. He removed thence to Atkinson, N. H.,

Eight of these sons of Nathaniel[4] and Judith (Badger) Cogswell were in the war of the Revolution, and they performed in the aggregate over thirty-eight years of service. Amos Cogswell was breveted Major at Princeton, 10 October 1783. Gov. John Langdon, of N. H., made him Colonel of 1st Regiment of Light Horse, 4 November 1785.

From a petition of Col. Amos Cogswell to the Secretary of War for his pension, dated 8 July 1820, which is still extant in his own handwriting, we take the following extract:

"About the 10 May 1775, I entered the service of my country as a second Lieutenant in Col. Gerrish's regiment, in the Massachusetts line, and was in a small action with the enemy at Sewell's Point with their floating batteries. In 1776, I served as second Lieutenant in Col. Baldwin's regiment, in New York; was in a small action with the enemy when they landed at Throg's neck, and also at White Plains. At Trenton, I waded across the river, and took two Hessian prisoners under the Bridge; in doing which, I got a bad cold, and have had the rheumatism more or less ever since. In 1777, January 1st, I was appointed a Captain in the 9th Massachusetts Regiment, commanded by Col. James Wasson; was up the Mohawk River; took Ensign Butler, with fourteen Canada Rangers, and three Indians, prisoners; was at the raising of the siege of Fort Schuyler; marched from Albany to Ballston with one hundred men, and took forty refugees prisoners, that were going to Canada; was at the taking of Burgoyne; marched

Abigail[7] (Cogswell) Smart, at Kennebunk, Me., until Mrs. Smart's death in 1827, when she went to live with her daughter (the author's mother) Mrs. Paul[6] (1564) Wentworth, at Sandwich, N. H., where she died 14 February 1828. Her remains have been recently into their encampment with one hundred men, when their troops marched out, and collected together all their arms, and made my report to the Adjutant General that night. From there I joined General Washington, at Whitemarsh; was in the battle of Monmouth; was in a small action near King's Bridge, when the French troops joined the American army.

"I continued in service until the last day of December 1783, when I left with a commission of Brevet Major.

"I retired from service, and settled at Dover, N. H.

"I married a young widow, whose husband was a Captain of Marines [Samuel Wallingford], in the ship Ranger, with Capt. Paul Jones, Commander, when he took the British ship of war, Drake, and then lost his life. According to the several acts of Congress, she was entitled to about $1,000 for the prisoners and guns so taken, but she could never obtain anything. She is now in years, very infirm, of the same complaint as my own. She thinks she ought to draw a stipend from Government for one or the other of her husbands.

"I have always been a true friend to my country, both in the field and cabinet. I have served about ten years as a member in our General Court, three years in the Honorable Senate, and have had the honor of being one of the electors [in 1816] for our present President and Vice-President. I do say, not to my knowledge, did I ever miss a regular tour of duty the whole time I was in service, but performed hundreds for my brother officers that were absent in visiting their friends."

He was born in Franklin, Conn., 12 March 1752; was son of Ezekiel Huntley (a native of Scotland, who died of small-pox, in 1760, on his way home from an expedition against the Indians; his wife, Mary Walbridge, born August 1730, was over forty years a widow, and died 12 December 1800, at the house of her son Ezekiel). Ezekiel Huntley, husband of Sophia[5] Wentworth, joined the first regiment raised in his section of Connecticut, in the war of the Revolution, and marched with it to Boston. His first wife, Lydia Howard, died within a year after marriage; and it was for her that his only child was named. He died in Hartford, Conn., 13 August 1839, after a few hours' sickness, with unfrosted hair and unimpaired mind, in his 88th year. His wife Sophia[5] died 28 August 1833, at the house of her only child, Mrs. Sigourney. They had:

1791. Lydia Howard[6] Huntley, born 1 September 1791; married Charles Sigourney. [3902]

The reader is indebted to Mrs. Sigourney for the following prose and poetry respecting her mother, sent, in the original manuscript, to the author of this work, and expressly for its pages: —

Mrs. Huntley possessed much native talent, with that quickness of feeling and perception that betokens genius, but received little aid from regular scholastic training. The advantages of education were, in those times, not very ably sustained or widely diffused in that region of Connecticut. Yet her mind, combining unusual vivacity with great strength of the retentive powers, was earnest in self-culture. Books being far scarcer and precious than at present, she perused with eager attention, and engraved the contents of favorite authors so firmly on her memory that years seemed to have no power in obliterating their traces. Some of the poets, especially Watts, were thus enshrined and embalmed; and she could repeat, verbatim, page after page of the most striking parts of "Clarissa Harlowe," Richardson then occupying that pre-eminence among writers of fiction that has since been accorded to the Magician of Abbotsford.

She evinced from early years acute sensibilities, with originality and force in their expression. She had an exquisite perception of melody and a clear voice in the gay or the sacred song.

Habits of industry and economy were integral elements in her character and conspicuous in the order and neatness of her housekeeping, a department that in the olden times was no sinecure, and which amid the primitive tastes of the pleasant city where she dwelt, it would not have been held fitting or respectable either to neglect or imperfectly to understand. She was blessed with a piety that pervaded both heart and life, and was for many years a communicant in the church under the pastoral care of the Rev. Dr. Joseph Strong, in what was then called the Upper or Old Town of Norwich, a locality remarkable for romantic scenery and a delightful state of society.

In person she was decidedly comely; her complexion florid, her eye bright, and her well-proportioned form so active in its movements that at the age of more than half a century she might have been easily mistaken for a fair woman of thirty.

Infirm health during the close of her earthly pilgrimage saddened the naturally animated expression of her countenance; but no frost of time dimmed the quick glance of her ever unspectacled eye or impaired the susceptibilty of her ear to sound.

The exceeding beauty of her chiselled features was so marked after death, and her pure, symmetrical forehead so unfurrowed, that those who gazed on her in the sleep of the coffin could scarcely be persuaded that almost three-score and ten years had passed over her.

The following lines were written by her daughter, at planting flowers on the grave, just before leaving for Europe: —

On thy cold pillow, mother dear,
  I've placed thy favorite flower,
The bright-eyed, purple violet,
  That decked thy summer bower,

The fragrant chamomile, that spreads
  Its tendrils fresh and green,
And richly broiders every chasm
  The velvet turf between.

I kissed the tender violet,
  That drooped its stranger head,
And call'd it blessed thus to dwell
  So near my precious dead.
And when my venturous path shall tend
  Across the deep-blue sea,
I bade it all unshrinking rise,
  And guard this spot for me.

Mother, there was no one beside,
  To do this deed for thee;
No other new-born, nursling babe
  Was cradled on thy knee;
Nor to thine ear, that hallowed name
  Did other lips than mine
E'er breathe, to prompt thy fervent prayer
  At morn and eve's decline.

Spare ye to pluck these sacred plants,
  Ye groups that wander near,
When summer sunsets gild the sky,
  Or autumn's tints appear!
So when your sleep is in the dust,
  Where now ye lightly tread,
Some filial hand may train the rose
  To deck your lowly bed.

MY MOTHER'S GRAVE.

I have enriched this soil. Flesh of my flesh
Is here deposited. Low at my feet
A casket lies, which love's best essence held.
—O mother! mother! What a thrilling tide
Flows o'er me at thy name!
  Thy tender cares
Thy footstep wearied in this thorny vale,
The sculptured beauty of thy pale, pale brow,
When death restored what years of pain had marr'd,
The smooth, benignant forehead, and the smile
That curved the perfect lips, —
  Let me sit down
On thy green sepulchre, and muse of thee.
Still sounds thy heavy death-moan in my ears.
O mother! mother!

Yet it is not well
To mourn supinely. Rather let us pay
To our own little ones that debt of love
Which nothing earthly, save a mother's heart,
Can comprehend or cancel. Let us strive
The good we have received to render back
Into the bosom of the rising race.
So shall we keep Heaven's law. Sad harp, be still!

MARY[5] (661), daughter of Samuel[4] and Lois (Jones) Wentworth, born in Berwick, Me., May 1763; married, 26 April 1781, Samuel Brackett. When he married, he was called "Samuel Brackett, 3d." (He had a brother Reuben Brackett, an uncle John Brackett, born 29 January 1720, and a nephew John Brackett who lived in China, Me.) He moved to Limington, Me., where he died 31 October 1850, aged 93 years.

Mary's[5] father having died when she was about three years old, she was brought up by her grandparents, and lived with them until their death, which was less than a year before her marriage. She survived her husband, and died in Limington, Me., of influenza, 24 January 1853, in her 90th year.

Her memory continued good to the last; and through her daughter Phebe[6], the author of this work had correspondence with her.

Her grandfather was Deacon Samuel[3] (52) Wentworth, son of Timothy[2], and was living with him when he died, and must then have been near twenty years of age. Mary[5] had often heard her grandfather Deacon Samuel[3] speak of his father Timothy[2], and of his grandfather Elder William[1].

From her the author gathered much information that was entirely new. Most of her statements have been confirmed from other sources; none of them have been refuted.

She always insisted that Elder William[1] Wentworth married a second wife in his old age, who was much under twenty years of age, and that he had children by her. She related many anecdotes in confirmation. Timothy[2], she said, was a son of the first wife. She insisted that Sarah, wife of Timothy[2], was a Cromwell.

Samuel and Mary[5] (Wentworth) Brackett had:

1855. Wentworth[6] Brackett, born 3 September 1782; died 20 September 1807.

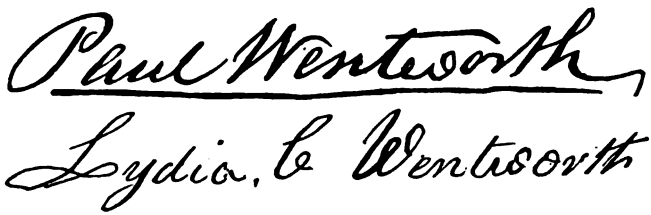
PAUL[6] (1564), son of John[5], jr., and Margaret (Frost) Wentworth, born in Dover, N. H., 22 April 1782; was less than five years old when his father died, 10 January 1787, and not long after that date he went to live with his father's brother, Thomas Millet[5] (535) Wentworth, in Lebanon, Me. In 1795 he was in the Academy at Exeter, N. H. Subsequently he went into the store of James Jewett, Esq., of Dover, who married his mother's sister Dorothy, daughter of Joseph and Margaret (Colton) Frost, of Newcastle, N. H. Finally he became a merchant himself at Dover Landing, and was very successful for those times. He was appointed by President Jefferson, 3 May 1808, captain in the 4th U. S. Infantry, and was stationed at Fort Constitution, in Newcastle, N. H. (formerly Fort William and Mary), which commands the entrance to Portsmouth Harbor. In 1811 he was ordered to take his company to the western frontier, where Gen. Harrison was then in personal command. Although at that time contemplating a resignation, with the view of engaging in mercantile business, he postponed it until he should have conducted his company to Fort Harrison, Ind., near what is now Terre Haute, and at once informed the Department of his purpose, and received a reply that his resignation would be thus accepted. Accordingly he resigned immediately after reaching his destination, 29 October 1811, and returned to New Hampshire, there being at that time at Fort Harrison no symptoms of any immediate conflict with the Indians.

The battle of Tippecanoe, near what is now Lafayette, Ind., did not take place until the 7th of November following his resignation, and after Gen. Harrison had marched into the enemy's country some distance from Fort Harrison. While at Vincennes, Ind., he joined, 23 September 1811, a Masonic Lodge called "Vincennes Lodge," and was conducted into it by the gallant Col. Joe Daviess, of Kentucky, who fell at the battle of Tippecanoe, and for whom Joe Daviess County, Ill., is named. After his return to Dover he learned (through its mortgage to Dr. Ezra Green, of Dover) that the farm of Col. Jacob Smith,* of Sandwich, N. H., was for sale. In June 1812 he visited Sandwich, and purchased the farm.

He was married, by Rev. Joseph W. Clary,† at Dover, 30 March 1814, to Lydia[7] (1648.6), daughter of Col. Amos and Lydia[6] (1648)



(Baker) (Wallingford) Cogswell. (See "Cogswell" note under Lydia[6] (1648) Baker.) She was born in Dover, 30 May 1793.

He and his wife were both descendants of Ezekiel[2] (son of Elder William[1] Wentworth), who had Benjamin[3] (33) who married Elizabeth Leighton, from whom Paul[6] was descended, and Tamsen[3]

* Col. Jacob Smith married Dolly Ladd, and moved to Sandwich, N. H., about 1768, from Exeter, N. H., and cleared the farm on which the author of this work was born. He left a son Eliphalet Smith, who married, 5 March 1784, Mercy Burley, who lived on an adjoining farm, in the last house between the house in which his father lived and the mountain. He died in 1848, aged 86, leaving a son, John Smith, who occupied the premises when visited by the author of this work, in 1872, and who claimed the honor of having had charge of the author of this work whenever his parents were away from home.

† Joseph Ward Clary, fourteenth minister of the first parish in Dover, was born in Rowe, Mass., 21 November 1786. He graduated at Middlebury College, in 1808, and at Andover Theological Seminary in 1811; was ordained at Dover, 7 May 1812. He was dismissed (on his resignation) 6 August 1828, and in the following autumn was installed in Cornish, N. H. He resigned that charge in 1834, and died there, 13 April 1835. He was reinterred in Pine Hill burying-ground, at Dover, 19 December 1835, by the First Church there, which erected a monument to his memory. Mr. Clary married, 1st, Anna, daughter of Hon. Timothy Farrar; 2d, Lucy, daughter of Hon. Timothy Farrar, she then being widow of Rev. Richard Hall. Rev. Timothy Farrar Clary, of Mattapan, Mass., graduated at Dartmouth College, 1841, and Dr. George Clary, of Hartford, Conn., graduated at Dartmouth College, 1852, are his sons, by the first and second wives respectively.

(35), who married, 1st, James Chesley, from whom his wife was descended. His line was through Col. John[4] and Hon. John, jr.[5]; her line, from Tamsen[3] Wentworth, was through Tamsen's[3] son James[4] (167) Chesley, jr., who married Mehitable Waldron, and had Tamsen[5] Chesley who became (after the death of her first husband John Twombly) the second wife of Col. Otis Baker, of Dover, N. H., and had Lydia[6] (1648) Baker who married Col. Amos Cogswell.

On the farm bought of Col. Jacob Smith, their first child (the author of this work), and his sister Lydia C.[7] (3590), were born. That farm Paul[6] soon sold to the late Benjamin Way; and in 1862, it was in possession of Mr. Way's son-in-law, the late John Beede, then Representative from Sandwich, in the Legislature, and whose son John W. Beede sold it to Asahel Wallace. Paul[6] then removed to a farm called "the Quimby Place," about a mile south on the way to his final location, where the third child Joseph[7] (3591) was born. About 1820 he removed to what is called "the Purington Place," at "Little's Corner," about a hundred rods south of the final family location, where his son George W.[7] (3592) was born. In about a year thereafter he bought of a Mr. Dearborn what has since been known as the "Wentworth Place," and which commands a view of the entire town. On this place his grandson Paul[8] (5515), son of Joseph[7], now resides. Here all the other children were born. Besides managing this large farm, and several others in different parts of the town, he was a merchant in extensive business. He was postmaster many years; in fact, always when his political party was in power. He was Moderator of the town meetings, one of the Selectmen over twenty years, and a Justice of the Peace still longer. He was Representative in the Legislature, in 1831, 1832, 1833, 1834, and in 1839, 1840, and 1841. For several years he was chosen at the same election, Moderator, Selectman, and Representative; and in 1841, the last time he was a candidate, he received for these three offices respectively the highest vote ever cast for any person in the town. There being a desire on the part of the young men to bring forward his son Joseph[7] for office, he never afterwards became a candidate. In the winter of 1844–5, he left Sandwich,* and bought what is known as the "old Kent Place," on Pleasant Street, Concord, N. H.

* Sandwich was incorporated 25 October 1768. It was formerly in Strafford County; but by the division of that county, 22 December 1840, it became a part of Carroll County, and is in that part of New Hampshire often styled the Switzerland of America. The town is among those highlands which separate those beautiful

Before there was a Congregational church in Sandwich, N. H., Paul[6] and wife joined the one in Tamworth, of which Rev. Samuel Hidden* was pastor. The author of this work and the next four children were christened by him. Upon the establishment of a Congregational church in Sandwich, Paul[6] and his wife united therewith, and the remainder of the children were christened by the pastor thereof, except the last, Samuel Hidden[7] Wentworth, to christen whom, Rev. Samuel Hidden came from Tamworth to Sandwich, N. H., and gave his own name.

Early in 1855 the health of Paul[6] began to fail by general debility, and early in August he and his wife went to their old homestead in Sandwich, N. H., in the hope that a cooler air might prolong his life, which, it was apparent to all, was fast drawing to a close. He died 31 August 1855. There were present, his wife, his sons John[7], Joseph[7] and his wife, and Samuel H.[7]; his son-in-law Rev. Samuel Lee, and his daughter Margaret[7], with her husband David L. Morrill.

The remains were taken to Concord on Saturday, September 1, and buried that afternoon, by the side of his deceased sons George W.[7] and William B.[7]

His widow died upon the homestead in Concord, N. H., 24 August 1872. There were present, her son John[7] and his daughter Roxanna A.[8], son Joseph[7], his wife and their children Paul[8] and and picturesque bodies of water, dotted with hundreds of islands, — the Winnipiseogee and Squam Lakes. As the traveller from the capital of the State reaches the first of that extensive range known as the Red Mountain, which he never loses sight of until he arrives at Mount Washington itself, he beholds a promontory of comparatively low lands, nearly equally divided between hills, vales, and little lakes, jutting up among precipitous and rugged mountains, through which there seems no outlet except in the entrance. At the extreme end of this peninsular strip of land, bounded almost entirely by mountains, with no house nor road, nor any place beyond save the craggy mountains, less than a quarter of a mile to the right of the road that now leads through a hardly passable gorge to the town of Thornton, and in sight of almost perpetual snows, was the author of this work born. The soil is sterile and rocky, and its original settlers in 1767 declare that they found it a dense mass of rocks and trees, with no bare spot save its lakes and rivers.

* Rev. Samuel Hidden was son of Price and Eunice (Hodgskin) Hidden, and born at Rowley, Mass., 22 February 1760. He was a soldier in the Revolutionary army, and was in the battle of Stillwater. He graduated at Dartmouth College in 1791. He was ordained, on a rock still pointed out, pastor of the Congregational church in Tamworth, N. H., 12 September 1792, and remained until his death in that place, 13 February 1837. He was one of the most respected and popular clergymen of the State. He married, 29 November 1792, his cousin Betsey, daughter of William Price, of Gilmanton, N. H.

Sarah C.[8], son Samuel H.[7], and son-in-law Rev. Samuel Lee, with his son George William[8] Lee.

The following were the children of Paul[6] and Lydia[7] (Cogswell) Wentworth (of whom three sons and two daughters were living at the time of his death, and still live):

3589. John[7] (the author of this work), born in Sandwich, N. H., 5 March 1815. [5509*d*]

3590. Lydia Cogswell[7], born 21 July 1816; married, 14 January 1846 (by Rev. Otis Holmes, formerly of Sandwich, N. H., at Concord, N. H.), Rev. Samuel Lee, son of Samuel and Sarah (Burnett) Lee, in the line of John, Jonathan, John, and John Lee. He was born in Kensington, Conn., 18 March 1803; graduated at Yale College 1827; was a Congregational clergyman, installed at New Ipswich, N. H., 5 May 1836; was a member of the New Hampshire Legislature in 1848, 1849, and 1862. He had been previously married, by which marriage he had a daughter, Sarah Lee, who is now living, single. Mrs. Lydia C.[7] Lee died 6 March 1855,*

* The Mother's Magazine, for June of that year, had the following notice:—

"The recent decease of Mrs. Lee, wife of Rev. Samuel Lee, of New Ipswich, N. H., has produced a deep sensation in the circles where she was known. Her womanly accomplishments and her excellent Christian character won for her a high esteem. At the annual meeting of the Maternal Association, of which she was a member, holden a few days subsequent to her decease, a report was read, from which we make the following extract:—

"'Another year has been added to the existence of this Society, and as it closes it is fitting that we should remember the way in which our God hath led us. But how shall we proceed? We miss from our circle the dear one to whose voice we had hoped to listen to-day. Our secretary is not here. The pen has fallen from her hand, and she sleeps in the silent grave. Sadness comes over our spirits, and we mourn that we shall see her face no more, no more listen to the voice of her supplication when we meet to pray for our children. Seldom does an association of ladies sustain so great a loss by the death of one of its members as we have sustained by the death of Mrs. Lee, for she was no ordinary woman. Fitted to grace the highest circles of intelligence and refinement, she seemed quite unconscious of her own superior worth, but cherished a spirit meek and lowly, gentle and forgiving.

"'Ever the same social, familiar, kind, and sympathizing in her own peculiarly winning way, she sought the good of all, and none who knew her could withhold from her their affection and respect.

"'She was eminently spiritual. She loved the place of prayer, and we all felt that she was no stranger at the mercy seat. But words cannot portray a character like hers; "her record is on high." Doubtless the Saviour saw that she was fitted for the mansion which He has prepared for her in Heaven, and so He took her to Himself. Let us, while we live, cherish her memory, and endeavor to profit by her influence.

"'"She being dead yet speaketh," not in accents that mortal ears can hear, but in language which the heart may understand.'" and her infant son was christened at her funeral. Mr. Lee subsequently married the widow of Rev. David P. Smith (formerly of Sandwich, N. H)., daughter of Mr. Chandler, of Bedford, N. H., and sister of Hon. Zachariah Chandler, United States Senator from Michigan.

Rev. Samuel and Lydia Cogswell[7] (Wentworth) Lee had children, all born in New Ipswich, N. H.:

1. Samuel Wentworth[8] Lee, born 12 September 1847; married, in Indianola, Iowa, 6 March 1870, Sarah E. Wheeler, of that place, and lived there. He is a Baptist clergyman. They had:
   1. George William[9] Lee, born 18 December 1870.
   2. Wentworth[9] Lee, born 30 October 1876.
2. John Wentworth[8] Lee, born 3 April 1852, died 17 September 1852.
3. George William[8] Lee, born 20 June 1853; graduated D. C. 1874; is attorney-at-law, Des Moines, Iowa.
4. Joseph Wentworth[8] Lee, born 20 January 1855, died 5 September 1855.

3591. Joseph[7], born 30 January 1818. [5514]

3592. George Wallingford[7], born 2 November 1820; was at New Hampton Academy in 1839; entered Dartmouth College in 1841, and again in 1842, but was obliged in each instance to leave by ill health, and to finally abandon all idea of a collegiate education. He came to Chicago, Ill., in 1843, and passed a year. He then returned, and pursued the study of medicine at Concord, N. H., New York city, and Philadelphia, taking his degree at the latter place in 1847. He commenced practice in Chicago, Ill., immediately. During the ravages of the cholera there in 1849, the alderman of his ward resigned; and such had been his devotion to cholera cases, and such his success in his gratuitous practice among the poor, that he was elected to fill the vacancy, and at the next election was re-elected for the term of two years. In 1850 the cholera again broke out, and in his efforts to do his duty both as a physician and alderman, he was himself seized with that disease,*

* He was taken suddenly, while in his bed in his office, just about daybreak. The landlord (John Murphy) of the U. S. Hotel, at which he was boarding, called to see him about 7 A. M., himself in perfect health, was at once seized, and died before Dr. Wentworth did.

and died about five o'clock, P. M., on Wednesday, 14 August 1850, after about ten hours' sickness. His remains were taken to the family burial-place in Concord, N. H.

3593. Mary Frances[7], born 19 March 1822; married, at Sandwich, N. H. (by Rev. Otis Holmes), 19 May 1844, Rev. William H. Porter,* a Congregational clergyman of Litchfield, N. H. He was born in Rye, N. H., 19 September 1818; graduated at Yale College in 1841, and died in Roxbury, Mass., 26 May 1861. His widow lives at Rochester, Minn. They had:

The Chicago Medical Society met and resolved to attend, in a body, his funeral; and declared that in his death they had lost the co-operation of a worthy and industrious member of the profession, and the community the services of a valuable and public-spirited citizen; and that they deemed it due to the deceased that his memory should be gratefully cherished for his unvarying attention to the sick and suffering during the present epidemic, to which he himself fell a victim.

The Mayor called a special meeting of the Council, which resolved to attend the funeral in a body; to wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days; and that their resolutions of respect and condolence be placed on record, and sent to his parents.

Mrs. Lydia H.[6] (1792) Sigourney, of Hartford, Conn. (whose mother was a Wentworth, and whose family will be found among the descendants of Paul[2]), wrote the following lines upon his death:—

Science doth mourn for thee,
  Who thus, at opening day,
Didst shroud thy manly head, and pass
  From her fair halls away.

But poverty and pain
  Lament with deeper woe
Their benefactor, laid in dust,
  Where turf and wild flowers grow;

Lament his faithful care
  Their gushing tears that dried,
And sought them in those dark abodes
  That few explored beside.

Yet better, thus beloved,
  Ere faded prime, to fall,
Affection's pearl-drops on thy brow
  And o'er thy sable pall,

Than a long, useless life
  'Mid change and storm and blast,
In selfish indolence to lead,
  And die unmourned at last.

* He was son of Rev. Huntington Porter, of Rye, N. H., from whose tombstone, in Rye, the following was copied by the author:—

"Rev. Huntington Porter died in Lynn, Mass., 7th March 1844, aged 89 years; born in Bridgewater, Mass., 27th March 1755; graduated at Harvard College, 1777; ordained at Rye, 29th December 1784."

Inscriptions at the graves of his wives say:—

mouth College in 1846, but was obliged to leave in 1847 in consequence of ill health. He died 28 July 1848, in Concord, N. H., and was buried in the family burying-place there.

The editor of the Congregational Journal, who lived the next door to his father, thus spoke of him:—

His moral principles were remarkably firm and pure and his conduct uniformly consistent and manly; and had he been permitted to live, his talents and acquisitions and industry would have made him conspicuous in society as well as the joy of his family circle.

H., the family's favorite pastor, by whom he was baptized; graduated at Harvard College in 1858, and has since received the degree of A. M., and also that of LL. It was at his house in Rollinsford, N. H., being that formerly occupied by his grandfather Col. John[5] (160), that the author of this work first saw the record of Master Tate,*

* TATE'S RECORD. — Joseph Tate, known as "Master Tate," was a schoolmaster in Somersworth (that part now Rollinsford), N. H. He was said to have been an Englishman, his mother's name being Bird. It is said that some of his so often referred to in this work, being the most extensive and reliable record existing of the families of old Somersworth, of his time. John B.[6] had:

records were lost by the burning of a dwelling-house. The volume extant is probably the first; it is headed, "Name of Families, Children's Names, & Time of Birth, in the Town of Somersworth, Mar. y• 26, 1767." It gives prior dates of births of children in the families then resident there, and continues until 1778. As no blank leaves appear, it is probable that the next volume was a continuation; and in the space given to his own family, in this volume, dates of births are continued to 1786. The volume contains, also, "Memorandums of Sundry Things, viz., Deaths, Marriages, Disasters, etc." There are interspersed extracts from periodicals, statistics, recipes, notices of current events, etc.; and the book is very curious and valuable.

Master Tate lived by the Salmon Falls River, about fifty rods below the lower mill. Where or when he was born or died does not appear. He married Elizabeth Saunders. She was probably a widow, as his record says, 21 December, 1774, "My wife's daughter, Elizabeth Tod, broke her leg in going home from my house." He died, where he had lived for some years previous to his death, at the house of Capt. Morris Hobbs (who married Sarah[4], daughter of Sarah[3] (65) (Wentworth) Plummer), aged about ninety years, and was buried at the foot of Capt. Hobbs, in the family burying-ground. They had children:

1. Robert Tate, born 10 August 1744. He married, in 1767, Margaret, daughter of Thomas and Abigail (Hill) Wallingford. See "Wallingford" note under Mary[4] (163) Wentworth. Master Tate says, 29 May 1771, "My son Robert moved his family up to Lebanon," [Me.] He had:
    1. David Tate, born 21 June 1767.
    2. William Tate, born 14 September 1770.

    1. John Tate, born 19 March 1775.
4. Mark Tate, born 21 November 1751. He enlisted, 12 May 1775, "in Capt. Daniel Wood's Company," and left for Cambridge, Mass.; came home 10 January 1777, but returned in the same company, 19 March following. Capt. Daniel Wood does not appear on the N. H. rolls, but may have been of Berwick, Me., just across the Salmon Falls River.
5. Mary Tate, born 14 May 1756, died 18 December 1774.

Enoch Tate was one of the petitioners for the establishment of a separate school district, about 1775, in Somersworth, N. H. John Tate married, in Somersworth, N. H., 3 July 1826, Mary Randall.

LYDIA HOWARD[6] (1791) HUNTLEY, only child of Ezekiel and Sophia[5] (Wentworth) Huntley, born in Norwich, Conn., 1 September 1791; married there, 16 June 1819 (his second wife), Charles Sigourney, a merchant in Hartford, Conn., born in Boston, Mass., 21 July 1788. She had been teaching school in Hartford prior to her marriage. (Mr. Sigourney had several children by his first wife, of whom the last surviving son died two and a half years after himself, aged 45; two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Knox, of Troy, N. Y., and Mrs. Jane C. Burnham, of New York city, yet live.) Mrs. Sigourney died in Hartford, Conn., 10 June 1865, aged 73 years.

Charles and Lydia Howard[6] (Huntley) Sigourney had:

3903. Mary Huntley[7] Sigourney, born in Hartford, Conn., 3 August 1828; married, 25 October 1855, Rev. Francis T. Russell, an Episcopal clergyman, of Ridgefield, Conn. She gave a very interesting account of the last hours of her mother's life in Addenda to a work written by her mother, but not published until after her death, entitled "Letters of Life."

3904. Andrew Maximilian[7] Sigourney, born in Hartford, Conn., 11 July 1830, died of consumption, 24 June 1850. It was on the occasion of his death that his mother wrote "The Faded Hope."

The author of this work is indebted very much to Mrs. Sigourney for much that he has been enabled to gather respecting the descendants of Elder William[1] Wentworth's son Paul[2], who settled at Norwich, Conn. Nor did she confine her efforts to this one family. Quite twenty years was she a faithful correspondent; and never did she meet with the name of Wentworth that she did not at once communicate to him all the facts that she had been able to collect of its origin.

Very affectionately Your Cousin
L. Huntley Sigourney.

Not long before her death, which occurred at Hartford, Conn., 11 June 1865, aged 73 years, she wrote to the author of this work urging him to publish at once what he had already collected, and to trust to a second edition for additional collections.

Her poems, at planting flowers on her mother's grave, and "My Mother's Grave," are given in the account of Sophia[5] (642).

Mrs. Sigourney had a world-wide reputation as an authoress. Not only were several of her works republished in England, but they were translated into different languages. When she visited Europe, the Queen of the French presented her with a splendid diamond bracelet. At the age of twenty-four, in the year 1815, she made her first publication, entitled "Moral Pieces in Prose and Verse," and the next year she published "Life and Writings of Nancy Maria Hyde." Her third publication was in 1819, the first after her marriage. She continued writing to the last days of her life; and through over fifty popular publications, scattered through near half a century of time, she maintained her rank as a ready, earnest, and impressive writer.

May 12, 1865, past seventy years of age, an author of as early as 1815, when scarce a month this side the grave, is still writing. On that date, with a presentiment of approaching death, she thus writes her last:

Here is my Valedictory. I bring
A basket of dried fruits, — autumnal leaves
And mosses, pressed from Ocean's sunless tides;
I strew them votive at your feet, sweet friends,
Who 've listened to me long, with grateful thanks
For favoring smiles, that have sustained and cheered
All weariness.
I never wrote for fame —
The payment seemed not to be worth the toil;
But wheresoe'er the kind affections sought
To mix themselves by music with the mind,
That was my inspiration and delight.
And you for many a lustrum have not frowned Upon my lingering strain. Patient you 've been Even as the charity that never fails,
And pouring o'er my heart the gentlest tides
Of love and commendation. So I take
These tender memories to my pillowed turf,
Blessing you for them, when I breathe no more.
Heaven's peace be with you all!
Farewell! Farewell!

MAY 12, 1865. L. H. SIGOURNEY.

John Wentworth
Chicago

The summer of 1829 and winter of 1830 were passed at New Hampton Academy, under the same teacher as before. After passing the summer at home, he returned to New Hampton again, in the winter of 1830–31, and remained there until the winter of 1831–32, when he taught his first school, on "Simpson Hill," in that town, where there were many scholars much older than himself; and then returned to the Academy afterwards, and remained until the spring vacation.

On the 2 July 1873, Mr. Wentworth attended the semi-centennial meeting of the alumni of New Hampton Academical Institution, and was made President thereof.

In the spring of 1832 he attended the Academy at South Berwick, Me., under the charge of Lewis Turner* (B. C. 1831), and remained until the close of the summer term, when he was honored with the appointment to deliver the Valedictory Address at the annual exhibition.

In the autumn of 1832 he entered Dartmouth College, at Hanover, N. H., where he graduated in 1836, and by which college he had the degree of LL. D. conferred upon him in 1867. His second winter in college he taught school in Hanover, about two miles south of the college; his third, at Grafton, N. H.; his fourth, at East Lebanon, N. H. He became of age whilst on his last year in college, and gave his first vote for Isaac Hill, the Democratic candidate for Governor. The first political convention he ever attended was at Canaan, N. H., about twelve miles from East Lebanon, when teaching school at this latter place, he having been requested to attend as a substitute by one of the leading men of the school district, who was unable to do so. It was a convention to nominate a Democratic candidate for State Senator, and he was made chairman of the committee to draft resolutions.

On Monday, 3 October 1836, he left his father's house,† in Sandwich, N. H., with no place in view but that indefinable somewhere,

* Lewis Turner married, 1 April 1839, Caroline, daughter of Hon. Moses Hale, of Rochester, N. H., and died there 19 November 1844, aged 36 years; she died there 11 April 1873, leaving Mary C. Turner, who married Edward A. Secomb, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

† The farm now known as the "Wentworth Place" in Sandwich, New Hampshire (where the author of this work passed the most of his early days), was where the first settlement was made and where the first house was erected in the town. Daniel Beede, born at Kingston, N. H., 21 July 1729; married, 26 January 1750, Patience, daughter of Joshua Prescott; she was born in 1724, and was aunt of John Prescott and Joshua Prescott, who were among the earliest settlers of Sandwich. Daniel Beede lived at Gilmantown, N. H. In 1767 he commenced the the "Far West," with one hundred dollars in his pocket. He travelled by post-coach to Concord, N. H., thence over the Green Mountains to Troy, N. Y., where he remained Wednesday night, and thence to Schenectady, N. Y. Thence, for the first time, he rode on cars, taking the railroad to Utica, N. Y. Here he rode for the first time on a canal, taking it to Tonawanda, N. Y., where he took a stage for Niagara Falls, where he arrived on the evening of Sunday, the 9th. On the afternoon of the next day he went to Buffalo in a steamboat. On the morning of Tuesday, the 11th, he took the steamboat Columbus (Capt. A. Walker) at Buffalo, and arrived at Detroit, Mich., on the evening of Thursday, the 13th. From Detroit he went on foot some forty miles into the country, visiting Ann Harbor and Ypsilanti, and advertised himself as school-teacher in the Detroit Free Press. He returned to Detroit on the evening of Monday, the 17th. Sending his trunk around to Chicago by the new brig Manhattan, Capt. John Stewart, he took the stage for Michigan City, Ind., where he arrived on the afternoon of the 22d of October. The next day he left on foot for Chicago, travelling around the head of Lake Michigan upon the sand of the beach. He arrived at Chicago on the forenoon of Tuesday, the 25th, and accidentally met, as he was entering the city, an old New Hampton (N. H.) schoolmate of his, Matthew S. Molony, formerly of Northfield, N. H., who recommended him to the United States Hotel, kept by the late John Murphy, with whom he long afterwards continued to board. He soon was employed to conduct a newspaper, first settlement in Sandwich, was its Representative before, during, and after the Revolution, and held the principal offices of the town, and was its first Justice of the Peace. He was a delegate to the New Hampshire Constitutional Convention, in 1791-92. In 1795 he was appointed one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, and held the office until his death, 7 April 1799. (See N. E. Hist. and Gen. Register for 1851.) His son Nathan Beede, born 23 May 1750, who married Dorothy Scribner, then took the place, and sold it to Dr. Asa Crosby, 6 December 1805; and his son Alpheus Crosby, the celebrated Greek professor and scholar, was born upon it, 13 October 1810. His older son Hon. Nathan Crosby, of Lowell, Mass., was the first college graduate from the town. (See "A Crosby Family," by Hon. Nathan Crosby.) Dr. Asa Crosby was the first physician in the town, and represented it eleven years in the Legislature. On the 16 July 1817, he sold the farm to Dudley Leavitt and Reuben Dearborn (of Loudon, N. H.), who sold it, 10 August 1820, to Paul[6] (1564) Wentworth, who represented the town many years in the Legislature. and then it became the property of his son Joseph[7] (3591), who also represented the town and was a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1850; and it is now possessed by his son Paul[8] (5515), who was a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1876. Thus a resident of this farm has been a delegate to every State Contitutional Convention, and for much of the time a resident of it has been a member of the Legislature.

called the Chicago Democrat, and eventually he became its sole proprietor. In 1839 he was appointed one of the aides-de-camp of Gov. Thomas Carlin. He took part. in the winter of 1836–7, in the first meeting called in the town of Chicago to consider the propriety of adopting a city charter. In 1837 he was elected the first corporation printer, and held that position as often as his party was in power, being about three-fourths of the twenty-five years during which he published his newspaper. In 1838 he was elected one of the Board of School Inspectors, since known as the Board of Education.

Meanwhile, he passed all his leisure moments in the study of law; and in the spring of 1841 he entered the Law School at Cambridge, Mass. Upon his return to Chicago in the fall, he deemed it for his interest not to return to the Law School, but to apply at once for admission to the Bar of Illinois, as his name was prominent among the candidates for the next Congress. He was admitted to the Bar in the fall of 1841. Owing to the lateness in taking the census, the Congressional election, which should have taken place in 1842, did not take place until 1843, when Mr. Wentworth was elected from what was then the Fourth District of Illinois, he being twenty-eight years of age, and the youngest member of the Twenty-eighth Congress. He was re-elected to the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, and Thirty-first Congresses, and then declined a re-election.

He was a member of the Baltimore National Convention in 1844 which nominated James K. Polk for the Presidency, and also of that of 1848 which nominated General Lewis Cass. He was chairman of the committee to call the celebrated National Harbor and River Convention which assembled at Chicago in 1847, and drafted the address.

At the next census he was elected the first member from the new Second District of Illinois, and served out the Thirty-third Congress, and then peremptorily declined a re-election. He thus served two years under acting President Tyler; was present at the inauguration of President Polk, and served his four years out; was present at the inauguration of President Taylor, and also the inauguration of acting President Fillmore, and served two years under their administration. He was then out of Congress two years. He was present at the inauguration of President Pierce, and served two years under him. He was present when John Quincy Adams fell in the House of Representatives, and was one of the committee appointed by Speaker Winthrop to take his remains home to Massachusetts. He was elected a member of the Thirty-ninth Congress from a district composed of Cook County alone, and was upon the Committee of Ways and Means, under the administration of Andrew Johnson, and declined a re-election. He attended the inauguration of Mr. Lincoln after his re-election, and was also one of the committee to receive his remains at Chicago after his assassination.

In March 1857 he was elected Mayor of the City of Chicago for one year, and declined a re-election. He was again elected in 1860, and declined a re-election. During this term, he received the Prince of Wales. He was elected a delegate to revise the Constitution of the State of Illinois in 1861. In that year he was also chosen a member of the Chicago Board of Education for three years. In 1868 he was again elected to the Board of Education for four years. He was appointed Police Commissioner in 1863 to fill a vacancy in the term which expired in November 1864. He received the degree of LL. D. from Dartmouth College in 1867.

He was married at Troy, N. Y., 13 November 1844, by Rev. Nathan S. S. Beman,* D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of that city, to Roxanna Marie, only daughter of Riley and Roxanna (Atwater) Loomis,† of Troy. She was born at the house

* Mrs. Lydia H. (1791) Sigourney, whose mother was a Wentworth, and whose family is described among the descendants of Paul[2], wrote the following:—

"Lines on the death of John Wentworth, Jr., third and only child of the Hon. John and R. Marie L. Wentworth, of Chicago, who died very suddenly, at the age of two years and three months, at the house of his grandfather, Riley Loomis, Esq., in Troy, N. Y., Monday, February 23, 1852, at 10 o'clock, P. M.

Bud of beauty, early blighted,
  Scion of a noble stem,
O'er thy pillow, Hope, benighted,
  Tearful drops her faded gem,

Visions of parental gladness
  With thy last pulsation fled;
And the cloud of funeral sadness
  O'er thy grandsire's mansion spread.

Through those thriving western valleys
  Never now thy feet shall press,
Nor thine eyes behold the prairies
  Robed in flowery loveliness.

Yet, to purer regions soaring,
  Thou hast found a clime more fair;
'Mid a cherub host adoring.
  Mother! seek thy darling there."
